Case Study

Strengthening Security Resilience Through Partnership

Corps and Toro have come together to strengthen their security, risk and resilience expertise to provide a broader and more accessible range of services to clients at affordable cost.

This partnership, established in 2020 leverages our shared expertise, resources, and innovation to deliver high-quality security services and solutions taking a converged approach to physical, cyber and people security within a predominant manned security service.

At its core, this collaboration is built on trust, mutual respect, and a shared commitment to excellence. By combining their unique strengths, both Corps and Toro work seamlessly to offer integrated services within the converged security space. Their aligned values ensure a unified and consistent approach to security, risk and resilience.

Key Benefits of the Partnership

Comprehensive Security Solutions

Combining expertise and resources, both organisations offer a full range of security services, including threat intelligence, compliance auditing, assurance testing, education and training, physical and cyber protection. Together we are a one-stop resource for all clients' security needs.

Knowledge Sharing and Evolution

Ongoing training, knowledge exchange, and best practice sharing keep both partners ahead of the curve. We work closely together to identify security trends, foresee future developments in the risk landscape, and to bring our clients the necessary innovations for their protection and growth. We appreciate security can be a grudge purchase, that is why we remain committed to giving our clients solutions that enable them to profit and succeed.

Client-Focused Events

Corps and Toro recently hosted a joint event to provide clients with valuable insights into emerging security challenges and proactive strategies. This is the first event of many.

This partnership has already made a measurable impact, enhancing security resilience for multiple clients.

"Our partnership is founded on shared values and a commitment to delivering the best possible security solutions. By working together, we ensure our clients receive the best solution."

Gavin, Director of Physical Security and Risk

"Security is evolving and mature professionals recognise the strength in partnering with other experts who reflect their culture and provide services that compliment and enhance their existing offerings. Through this collaboration, we stay ahead of emerging threats and provide our clients with dynamic, adaptable solutions that meet their unique needs."

Neil, Director of Consulting

This case study highlights the power of collaboration in the security sector. With a shared focus on innovation, continuous improvement, and client satisfaction, both organisations are dedicated to reinforcing security resilience. As threats evolve, this partnership will continue to adapt, ensuring clients receive the most effective security solutions available.
